Can we find & get to you?

Is your house easy to find and accessible for emergency responders?

Proper address identification:

Addresses are vital to emergency services. A fire engine, ambulance, or police car can be delayed several minutes trying to locate a correct address. Such time delays can mean the difference between life and death. Residents are responsible for two items that largely determine the ability of an emergency vehicle to find an address: (1) Correct address from the person reporting the emergency. Your address should be written on every phone in your house so that in an emergency, anyone calling knows the address. (2) Large, legible address numbers visible from three sides of mailbox and front of house.

Driveway access from road up to residence:

Fire apparatus are much larger than your family car, but still need to make it down your driveway. In order to make it down a driveway a fire engine needs a driveway to be clear of obstructions such as tree limbs and boulders. The minimum clearance should be 11 feet high and 10 feet wide. If there are bends or angles the width may need to be adjusted as fire engines are almost 40 feet long. Please help us get to you by trimming trees annually and keeping decorative stones/boulders clear.

Safety Matters

With warm weather and family events, summer can be a fun time with great memories. Lake Country Fire & Rescue wants to help this be a summer to remember with your family and friends, below are a few safety tips to help make that happen.

Fireworks Safety

- Always use outside and have a bucket of water and hose nearby
- Fireworks have been known to backfire and shoot off in the wrong direction
- Light one firework at a time and never relight a dud.
- Don't hold fireworks in your hand and keep away from face, hair, and clothing.
- Follow local fireworks ordinance

Water Safety

- Children need constant supervision around water – don't assume, however, that a child who knows how to swim isn't at risk.
- Young children are especially vulnerable – they can drown in less than 2 inches of water.
- Inflatable vests and arm devices are not effective protection against drowning.

Rainbow Rowell
Adult Fiction; Romance

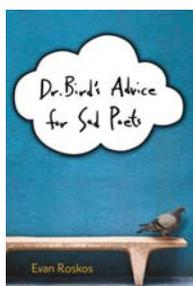

Beth and Jennifer know their company monitors their office e-mail, but they still spend all day sending each other messages and baring their personal lives like an open book. When Lincoln applied to be an Internet security officer, he hardly imagined he'd be sifting through other people's inboxes like some sort of electronic Peeping Tom...or that he could fall in love with someone just through reading their email.

Eleanor & Park

Rainbow Rowell
Young Adult Fiction; Romance

Set over the course of one school year in 1986, this is the story of two misfits who, against all odds, connect with each other through music and comic books. Rowell expertly gives us a first-love that is delicate and brave and impossible to get out of our minds.

Dr. Bird's Advice for Sad Poets

Evan Roskos
Young Adult Fiction

James is a sweet and inspiring 16-year-old boy who writes poems, recites Walt Whitman and hugs trees to cope with his depression and anxiety.

Going Vintage

Lindsey Leavitt
Young Adult Fiction; Romance

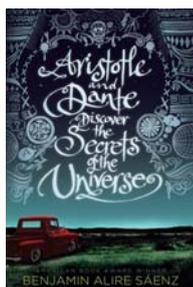

When Mallory's boyfriend is electronically unfaithful to her, she opts to forego all technology and throw herself into the 1962 way of life with new goals such as "host a soiree," "make my own prom dress," and "find a steady." A fun and completely charming new book for anyone who thinks they may have been born in the wrong era.

The Raven Boys

Maggie Stiefvater
Young Adult Fiction; Urban Fantasy

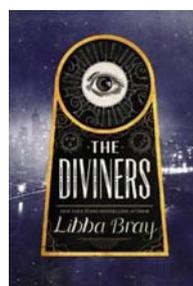

"There are only two reasons a non-seer would see a spirit on St. Mark's Eve. Either you're his true love or you killed him." Blue Sargent comes from a family of clairvoyants but she's no seer herself... until the year when she is approached by the apparition of a soon-to-be-dead boy. This is a wonderfully original and engaging book that explores and entangles both the real and the magical.

Aristotle & Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe

Benjamin Alire Saenz
Young Adult Fiction

Quiet and beautiful, this book about a friendship between two fifteen-year-old boys is lean in prose but thick in emotion.

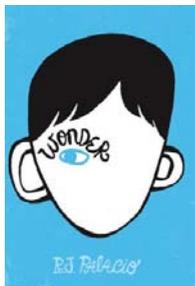

The Diviners

Libba Bray
Young Adult Fiction; Supernatural

The Roaring Twenties crash into the occult in this sprawling teen mystery. Evie O'Neill, an outspoken 17-year-old with an insatiable appetite for adventure, is thrilled when she is exiled from small-town Ohio to New York City in 1926, even when a rash of murders thrusts Evie and her uncle, curator of The Museum of American Folklore, Superstition, and the Occult, into the thick of the investigation.

Wonder

by R.J. Palacio (GR Level U, Grades 5-6)

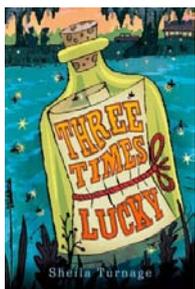

August Pullman is born with a facial deformity so severe that his parents have never sent him to school. Now that he is a fifth grader, they have all decided it's time for Auggie to begin at prestigious Beecher Prep. Being the new kid in school is hard enough for the average 10 year old, but having a face that makes adults turn away is going to make for a difficult year. Fortunately for Auggie, there are a few people who, eventually, are able to overlook his look, and Auggie finds he can be something other than his face.

The One and Only Ivan

by Katherine Applegate (GR Level M, Grades 3 and up)

This year's Newbery Winner, The One and Only Ivan is the story of Ivan, a gorilla, Bob, a dog, and Stella, an aging elephant who reside at the Exit 8 Big Top Mall and Video Arcade, in cages (well, except for Bob.) Life is pretty boring for the three, and Ivan spends much of his time remembering his life before capture, thinking about what he's watched on TV, and his art. When the mall acquires a young elephant, Ruby, Stella, Bob, and Ivan decide their mission is to make sure Ruby's life isn't spent at the Exit 8 Big Top Mall.

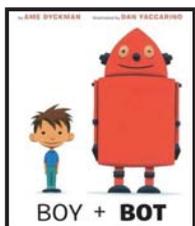

Three Times Lucky

by Sheila Turnage (GR Level N, Grades 3 - 5)

New sixth-grader, Mo LoBeau has plans for the summer which include hanging out with her best friend, Dale Earnhardt III and his dog, Queen Elizabeth II. Those plans do not include a murder and its ensuing investigation by Detective Joe Starr, a hurricane, a bank robbery, or the unexpected disappearances by the two people she loves most in the world, the Colonel and Miss Lana. The characters in Tupelo Landing are all wonderful, but Mo stands out as a smart, clever, brave and true heroine of our time. I listened to this one, beautifully read by the late Michal Friedman whose voice is pure Mo.

Picture Books

Boy + Bot

by Amy Dyckman, Illustrated by Dan Yaccarino.

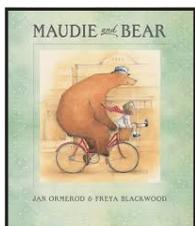

When Boy's robot friend gets switched off, Boy thinks he's sick, and Bot thinks something's gone horribly wrong with Boy when he falls asleep. A sweet story of friendship.

The Insomniacs

by Karina Wolf, Illustrated by The Brothers Hilts (Ben and Sean.)

When Mrs. Insomniac takes a new job twelve time zones away, the entire family has trouble adjusting to their new time zone. They decide to turn their days upside down, and find being awake only at night has it's benefits, not the least of which is Mika attending night school, remotely.

Maudie has a lovely little bear on wheels, but to her he is a very large real bear, who is endlessly patient with her and her demands. 5 small stories comprise this picture book, and each is a de-

Tuesday Garden Storytime

We are very excited to offer our Tuesday Garden Storytime in the beautiful Delafield Public Library garden this summer. Storytime is on Tuesdays at 3:00 beginning June 11th, and is for children from toddler age through elementary school (and their caregivers.) We'll be tending the plants in our new Children's Garden Plot, complete with a pizza garden and a salsa garden. We will plant, water, mist, mulch, and pick the plants, vegetables, herbs, and flowers there. Watch for our sunflower house to grow to completion, and take part in the nature crafts while you're there. Of course, there will be a story and a song or two. You'll sometimes take home a plant or some other special addition for your own garden space. While we're at it, we'll take pictures of our progress and ask you to draw some, too, to be included in our Summer Garden Scrapbook. Come dig in the dirt with us!

Pizza On The Grill

Prep Time: 45 Minutes
 Cook Time: 15 Minutes
 Servings: 16

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 (.25 ounce) package active dry yeast
- 1 cup warm water
- 1 pinch white sugar
- 2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 3 1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh basil
- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- 1/4 cup tomato sauce
- 1 cup chopped tomatoes
- 1/4 cup sliced black olives
- 1/4 cup roasted red peppers
- 2 cups shredded mozzarella cheese
- 4 tablespoons chopped fresh basil

DIRECTIONS:

1. In a bowl, dissolve yeast in warm water, and mix in sugar. Proof for ten minutes, or until frothy. Mix in the salt, olive oil, and flour until dough pulls away from the sides of the bowl. Turn onto a lightly floured surface. Knead until smooth, about 8 minutes. Place dough in a well oiled bowl, and cover with a damp cloth. Set aside to rise until doubled, about 1 hour. Punch down, and knead in garlic and basil. Set aside to rise for 1 more hour, or until doubled again.
2. Preheat grill for high heat. Heat olive oil with garlic for 30 seconds in the microwave. Set aside. Punch down dough, and divide in half. Form each half into an oblong shape 3/8 to 1/2 inch thick.
3. Brush grill grate with garlic flavored olive oil. The dough will begin to puff almost immediately. When the bottom crust has lightly browned, turn the dough over using two spatulas. Working quickly, brush oil over crust, and then brush with 2 tablespoons tomato sauce. Arrange 1/2 cup chopped tomatoes, 1/8 cup sliced black olives, and 1/8 cup roasted red peppers over crust. Sprinkle with 1 cup cheese and 2 tablespoons basil. Close the lid, and cook until the cheese melts. Remove from grill, and set aside to cool for a few minutes while you prepare the second pizza.

Hawks Inn — See it for Yourself

Maintaining the Inn

House museums require a lot of behind the scenes maintenance and in the case of Hawks Inn, it is all done by volunteers.

As every quilter knows, quilts must be refolded periodically to avoid permanent creases. On a recent May day, six members of the Mukwonago Crazy Quilters group (Joan Bernau, Karen Keyes, Kathy Kippers, Lucy Kluessendorf and Judy Wilke) came to refold the Inn's over 50 vintage quilts and change the beds to summer weight tops.

Throughout the spring, Mernie Williams, Irene Lewandowski, and Mary Daniel have worked steadily to maintain and enlarge the gardens, with assistance from the Summer-Del garden club.

Arnold Parkinson is our talented carpenter/repair man. He has rebuilt benches, repaired broken windows and bed frames, and is currently working on the porch chairs.

Regular Inn cleaning is led by Cheryl Bloomquist and Jean Erickson with help as needed by other member volunteers.

Alonzo Cushing Day — June 29 — 1 p.m.

With the renewed interest by local legislators in pursuing the ongoing attempt to finally secure the Medal of Honor for Alonzo Cushing, the community may find the Hawks Inn Society's Cushing program of interest. The featured speaker is Ron Aronis, Civil War reenactor and co-founder of Cushing's Battery in Wisconsin. His emphasis is light artillery in the war specifically the Battle of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and the life of heroic Lt. Alonzo Cush-
